

Ways Students Can Get Involved...

LUNCH PRESENTATIONS

(All will be held in NW corner of the GH. Grab lunch and then head straight over. We'll get started right away.)

Tuesday, March 11th

Dr. Rick Brennan (Brophy Class of '72) is a retired Army officer who earned his Ph.D. in Political Science from UCLA. During his military career he served in infantry command and staff positions, was an assistant professor at West Point, and served on the personal staff of the Secretary of Defense in the Pentagon. Dr Brennan will talk about the role of the United States in peacekeeping and peacemaking during the 1990s. He will also talk about the current war in Iraq from the vantage point of a soldier and scholar who recently completed a fifteen-month deployment in Baghdad.

Thursday, March 13th

Rick D'Elia who served as a photo journalist in Uganda during the war will offer a lunch time presentation about the work of photojournalists in relation to human dignity. He will share a slideshow of his work in Uganda. Additionally, a photo exhibit of Rick D'Elia's work will be on display in the lobby of the Brophy gym during the Summit. It will be open during break and lunch each day.

Monday, March 17th

Interfaith Perspectives on War and Peace- Doug Shaw, Rabbi Darren Kleinberg and Imam Sabahuddin.
The Christian, Jewish and Muslim faiths will be represented as we discuss the religious teachings and perspectives on war and peace.

Wednesday, March 19th

Legislative Efforts for Peace- Terri Mansfield, Executive Director, Arizona Dept. of Peace Campaign. In addition to discussing the 216 year old history to create a US cabinet level Dept. of Peace this special lunchtime presentation will also cover:

- 1-the growing numbers of Student Peace Alliance chapters on high school and college campuses;
- 2-contacting our Congressional Representatives to urge them to sponsor the Dept. of Peace legislation in the House of Representatives (HR808);
- 3-proven methods and solutions that reduce violence in our communities.

PHOTO EXHIBIT

The exhibit will be in the lobby of the Brophy gym and will be open during break and lunch each day of the Summit. This exhibition by Rick D'Elia will present a glimpse of some of the human stories associated with the conflict in Uganda, in the hope that the near future will yield an end to the misery in which many in northern Uganda live and free the next generation from the shadow of fear and violence.

VIDEO BOOTH

Do you have reactions to the guest speakers? What are you feeling as you listen to the stories being shared?

What do you think about war? What is the potential for peace?

Answer these questions and more in our first ever Summit Video Booth (think reality TV shows!) This is your opportunity to get your voice heard. Visit the video booth in the Blackbox during break and lunch any day during the Summit and take 60 seconds to have your thoughts and reactions recorded. Stop by each day to answer the new "Question of the Day" or just let us know what you are thinking.

WEEKEND AND EVENING SUMMIT EVENTS

Sun., March 9th - Theology in the City Lecture Series

A lecture and theological discussion with Fr. Kevin F. Burke, S.J., discussing "Violence and the Way of Peace: The Moral Vision and Theological Witness of Ignacio Ellacuria." Wed., March 19th - 7-8:30pm- Presentation and Candlelight Peace Vigil on campus

While there will not be an assembly during the school day in the evening Pax Christi will host a candlelight peace vigil with special guest Michael Baxter. This not only allows for active participation of our students towards the Summits end and during Holy Week, but also falls on the 5th anniversary of the War in Iraq.

Prior to the Candlelight Peace Vigil Mike Baxter will examine the interrelationship of theology, history, and ethics, with particular attention paid to the morality of war and Christian peacemaking in a presentation in the Great Hall starting at 7pm. To RSVP please contact Mr. Broyles at tbroyles@brophyprep.org or 602-264-5291 x. 6434.
